

Indiana's phone law should NOT be altered in any way. It has given us quiet family time at evening meals. We have not been bothered with solicitation phone calls since this was implemented. We pay the phone company for a service to call and receive calls from people we know. I do not think the phone system should be used for solicitation. (telemarketing)